Meet LoVanne!

LoVanne Burnett is a Senior Loan Officer in the Aurora Branch. She has been with the credit union since December 2, 2019. She has been in the banking/financial world for the past 23 years, and proved her prowess in lending very quickly.

She is married to a fellow Law Enforcement Officer, and they have had two children together: Jayden and Jayla. When not on the job, she enjoys sporting events (football is her favorite sport), traveling (Belize is one of her favorite vacation spots), and going to the movies (her most recent favorite movie is Star Wars: Rise of Skywalker).

Be sure to say hi to her the next time you stop in at the Aurora branch and ask her those loan questions you've been wondering about recently!

Make your nomination for the Third Annual RMLEFCU Unparalleled Community Impact Award

Do you know a colleague who deserves recognition for outstanding community service?

It's time to share their story by nominating them for the Third Annual Unparalleled Community Impact Award, as well as the Outstanding Act of Service Award, which honors two additional officers who have displayed a recent act of exceptional service. The recipients receive a plaque, a prize, and public recognition at an event and luncheon held at their department, sponsored by RMLEFCU.

Have anyone in mind? Get details for both awards and submit your nomination at the RMLEFCU Blog page listed below. The deadline is Friday, April 10, 2020.
